The Marist Brothers
Provincial Development Office
A warm welcome to the 2014 edition of The Marist Brothers Provincial Development Office Newsletter. We hope you enjoy browsing the pages to catch up on the exciting things that have been happening in our office and throughout the province over the past year.

We proudly include our annual Honor Roll of Donors. This is a compilation of all our donors who have so generously supported the Brothers over the course of our last fiscal year. Each year the Honor Roll increases in length, bearing witness to the growing number of friends financially helping the Brothers carry out their mission to young people. To each and every one of you, we express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude.

Theodore Roosevelt once said, “Far and away the best prize that life offers is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.” We couldn’t agree more! With your assistance, our work is focused on providing the financial assistance the Brothers need to continue their ministries with young people, and to take good care of our elderly and disabled Brothers who have given so much during their lifetime. Your positive response encourages us to enthusiastically continue our work for the benefit of all Marist Brothers.

This year we inaugurated a Charitable Gift Annuity Program. We have partnered with the experts at the National Catholic Community Foundation to offer charitable gift annuities to members of our Marist Family. Through the addition of this program we have increased the number of available options for estate planning. For more information, please contact our office.

The Annual Fund continues to be the largest single source of income to the Province from the Development Office. We are grateful for the outstanding number of you who have loyally donated to our Annual Fund over the years. We also appreciate the wonderful support our elderly and disabled Brothers received from our spring Retirement Appeal.

Each gift we receive is needed, welcomed and appreciated. There are numerous worthwhile charities who ask for your support each year and we know you have a choice in those you help. We want you to know how grateful we are for your gifts, and for your presence within our Marist Family.

Sincerely,

Br. Hugh P. Turley, FMS, CFRE
Co-Director of Development

Paulette M. Karas, CFRE
Co-Director of Development
Each year we recognize new members to the LaValla League, in gratitude for their 10 consecutive years of giving to the Marist Brothers Annual Fund.

We chose the name “LaValla,” the name of the village in southern France where the Marist Brothers began in 1817. “LaValla” embodies the sentiments of allegiance and of beginnings.

In appreciation for their kindness and generosity, each new member has received a unique, commemorative pewter medallion of St. Marcellin Champagnat encased in lucite.

This year we are proud to announce the addition of the following 81 new members, bringing the new total of LaValla League members to 1,100. Congratulations!

Ostrowski, Mrs. Claire Roy, Ms. Madeleine Soudee and Mr. William B. Van Riper III, our newest members of the Marcellin Guild. Guild members have included the Marist Brothers in their wills or other estate plans and thus share in the future of the Marist Brothers in a special way. Their distinguished legacy to the Marist Brothers and to the youth of our country is admirable. Thank you!

If you have included the Brothers in your will or other estate plan and are not listed above, please let the Development Office know of your legacy. Recognition as a Marcellin Guild member is a statement of our appreciation, and seeing you named proudly among the men and women of the Marcellin Guild will remind others of their potential to follow your example.
Everyone reading this newsletter needs a will. Without a will, we forfeit our legal right to control the disposition of the property we have accumulated with a lifetime of effort.

Every will, however, should be different...each reflecting the individual needs and personal objectives of the testator. For some of us, a simple will can accomplish all our objectives. Others may have circumstances that demand a highly complex testamentary plan. Whether our wills are long or short, simple or complex, we can all benefit from using a five-step approach to will-making.

Step 1
Careful Reflection
Deciding how to dispose of an estate is never a simple matter. Desires often conflict with necessities. Practical considerations may differ from ideals. Equality among beneficiaries may be financially impractical. We really must think carefully about our true objectives.

A husband may think, "I want to leave everything to my wife." Upon reflection, however, he may realize that his real objective is simply to provide full financial security for his wife.

A mother may think, "I want to leave $100,000 to my child." Her real objective, however, may be to simply give her daughter a token of her love. Or she may wish to provide the child with a contingent security against a bad marriage, poor health or financial misfortune.

Step 2
Consultation
Talk over your objectives with your financial advisers and get their advice on what your will should provide. Be candid about your feelings and the needs of your beneficiaries. Your advisers will need specific facts about your assets, income and obligations—as well as your sentiments and objectives. The more information you give them, the better they can help you plan the shape of your will.

It is at this point that you can decide the specifics of your will: the amounts, percentages or specific properties to be bequeathed to each beneficiary; whether bequests are to be outright or in trust; contingency provisions; persons to be named executors, trustees or guardians, etc.

Skillful Drafting
Your attorney should draft you will. This is never a do-it-yourself project. Indeed, you must rely on your attorney to include all the important legal provisions that will ensure your objectives; He or she will be concerned about various contingencies; the legal powers of your executor; the source of funds for paying debts, costs and taxes; possible common disasters; apportionment provisions; and the exact names of all beneficiaries.

Your attorney will also make sure that your will is drafted, signed and witnessed as required by state law.

Step 4
Review
Your lawyer will probably draft your will based on present conditions, laws, asset values, planning techniques, financial needs and objectives. All these factors can change from time to time. And your will must change with them. You may need a later codicil (amendment), or you may need to completely rewrite your will.

To be safe, take the time at least once a year to review your will in light of your present circumstances, and ask your lawyer to look at your will—at least every two years—whether or not you think you want to make changes. Changes in state law, new tax pitfalls or opportunities, and new financial considerations make periodic legal reviews well worthwhile.

Step 5
Safekeeping
Your skillfully drafted, up-to-date will may be meaningless unless it can be found at your death. It might be a good idea to have your attorney retain the original copy. Or if you name a bank as executor, the bank will generally provide safekeeping in its vaults.

However you decide to safeguard your will, it is important that it can be quickly located as soon as it is needed. Always leave word with responsible people, or make a note in your personal records, as to where your will can be found.
When asked to write something on my 60th anniversary, I was taken aback. How do you tell your story? Who wants to know?

I was humbled being asked to tell my story to our audience of donors—but our friends and supporters needed to know how much they have changed the life of my Brothers and my life.

I grew up in a city neighborhood: on Noble Street in Greenpoint, Brooklyn, New York. Not the whole block, just the west end of it, and the park, and the docks and the East River. City dwellers know how significant city neighborhoods are. For me, it was ordinary.

We were six kids, my four sisters and my brother. Every night we did our homework around the dining room table. At some unannounced time after supper my father would rise from his paper, kneel on the floor, and begin the Rosary. With varying degrees of willingness we all followed suit, swung knees onto the floor, and finished the rosary with Mom and Dad. For me it was an evening ritual, and I'd not yet discovered the beauty within each prayer.

In high school I watched the Marist Brothers. Really watched. They were authentic, and jovial. It was an overwhelming and lasting impression. I couldn't have described it that way then, but that impression framed the rest of my life, for on July 26, 1954, at the age of 18, I joined the Marist Brothers.

Everyone has a backlist of experiences. Mine lists teaching with the Brothers in Manhattan and the Bronx, New York; then Washington, D.C., for my Ph.D. It includes teaching at Marist College, Poughkeepsie, New York; then Oglala Sioux Community College in Pine Ridge, South Dakota; then Catholic Charities in Jackson, Mississippi; and now my experience of development in Chicago, Illinois, for the past 25 years.

All this time I lived in community. Community living is the privilege, the blessing, of being let into the lives of giants called Marist Brothers. Just being with such deep-down good men is sanctifying. Gratitude for this privilege, this blessing, is the root of my caring for the Marist Brotherhood.

Enough. Blessings…
Congratulations to our JUBILARIANS

Ad Multos Annos

This year the Marist Family is happy to be celebrating our Jubilarians’ 715 years of combined service to the youth of the United States and throughout the world in our Marist missions.

God’s blessings on each of our Jubilarians for having faithfully followed in the footsteps of St. Marcellin Champagnat “for many years.” Ad multos annos!

Want to Double Your Gift?

Thank you for your support of the Marist Brothers and our ministries. Want to double your impact? You may already have the ability to do so. Contact your personnel or human resources department where you work and ask if your company is one of thousands that matches employee contributions. Through an employer’s matching gifts program, you could double or even triple your gifts to the Marist Brothers!

The best part is it won’t cost you another penny to double or triple your next gift to the Marist Brothers. Your company will do that for you! Some retirees, as well as spouses, may also qualify…just ask.

Making a matching gift is easy. Depending upon your employer’s policy, matching gifts can be made in one of the following ways:

1) By obtaining a matching gift form from your employer and sending it along with your gift to the Marist Brothers.

2) By providing your employer with a receipt or acknowledgement letter from the Marist Brothers, which substantiates that the gift was made.

3) If your company has a phone or internet matching gifts program, please indicate that you have arranged for such a match when you send in your gift.

Thank you!
As I reflect on this past year, I am grateful for all that God has done—and continues to do—for me and for our Marist Family. We have much for which to be grateful; friends, family, benefactors, our school and camp ministries, our youth and adult evangelization programs, our vocation efforts and three novices, to name but a few. As we look to the future, “something new is happening.”

Our 21st General Chapter called us “…to see the world through the eyes of poor children and young people and thus change our hearts as Mary did.” The delegates at the Chapter urged us to find “new creative ways to educate, evangelize, be advocates for, and be in solidarity with poor children and young people.” The Chapter also encouraged the Brothers and our colleagues to form communities and ministries that are international and intercultural in character.

In light of these calls, the Marist Provinces of the Arco Norte region—the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central America, Colombia, Venezuela and Ecuador—have been exploring the possibility of forming a collaborative international community of Brothers and lay Marist volunteers that would serve the educational and pastoral needs of poor children and young people. I am pleased to announce that at their recent meeting in Mexico City, the Provincials of the Arco Norte region have committed their Provinces to participate in a joint ministry (sponsored by the Archdiocese of New York) and community undertaking beginning in September 2014: the “Juan Diego” project in East Harlem, New York.

The report entitled Archdiocesan Neighborhood Based Collaborative, clearly articulated the realities and challenges that recent Mexican immigrants to the East Harlem area confront each day. Of particular interest to us are the report’s proposed responses to the needs in the following areas: programs to address parenting skills and the realities of the whole family, providing educational assistance to parents and other adults (ESL training, for example), a pastoral youth ministry program that would link young people more closely with initiatives sponsored by the local Catholic parish, an after-school educational program targeting middle and high school age youngsters, and providing sports and recreational opportunities for them. The needs are clear, and the time to act has come. I hope I can count on your support for this new and necessary venture.

Please know that the Marist Brothers remember your generosity which has always been one of those “many rays of hope” that strengthen our mission in serving young people. For all that you have done—and continue to do for us—know that the Marist Brothers are grateful.

Be assured of my good wishes and prayers for you and for your loved ones, and may our good and gracious God bless you always!

Sincerely,

Br. Ben Consigli, FMS

Br. Robert Warren, FMS, and student Katera Bell have a discussion in the Chapel at Marist High School, Bayonne, New Jersey.
The Marist Brothers are proud of their mission to bring Christian education to young people, especially those who are most neglected (Marist Brothers Constitutions, Article #2). There are many worthwhile charities seeking your financial support, and the Marist Brothers are sincerely grateful and thankful that you have chosen to include us in your philanthropy. Your gift, no matter the size, makes a real difference and is important to our ministry.

On behalf of the Marist Brothers Champagnat Hall Community, (from left) Co-Directors of Development Br. Hugh Turley, FMS, and Mrs. Paulette Karas accept a plaque of gratitude for their work on behalf of our Senior Brothers from Br. James McKnight, FMS, Senior Brothers Liaison, and Nurse Maria Hughes, Province Health Care Coordinator.

Top: Marist Brothers from around the country attend the 50th anniversary gala of Marist High School, Chicago, Illinois.

Left: Each 8th grader at Guadalupe Regional Middle School, Brownsville, Texas created and wrote cards for every teacher and staff member during Advent and hand delivered them while singing Christmas carols.
The Marist Brothers offer two different series of Remembrance in Prayer cards: Traditional and All-Occasion cards. Our signature Traditional cards feature the image of Christ and a new Marial design. Both of these Traditional cards may be used as memorials to remember the deceased. Our two All-Occasion cards may be sent in honor of a birthday, wedding or anniversary or to extend get-well greetings.

All cards carry a special promise of Remembrance in Prayer from the Marist Brothers.

We would be delighted to send you a complimentary packet of our new Traditional cards or refresh your supply of All-Occasion cards. Please send your request through email (maristbr@maristbr.org) or to the mailing address at left.
